Alameda Health System Foundation Presents 3rd Soul of Spring

Oakland, California — March 8, 2024 — On Saturday, May 18th, Alameda Health System Foundation (AHSF) will host its 3rd Soul of Spring festival and fundraiser at the historic and newly renovated Henry J. Kaiser Center for the Arts.

The event features 5x Grammy Award-winning singer-songwriter and producer, Lalah Hathaway, and her band live in concert, Emcee Miranda Wilson, and DJ Boogie Brown. Honorees include Legacy Awardee Alameda County Supervisor Keith Carson and Community Partner Awardee Alameda County Community Food Bank.

Tickets and sponsorships are available now at <https://bit.ly/ahsfsos24>

Guests will enjoy delicious culinary dishes and signature beverages and cocktails throughout the evening. A special VIP Reception takes place before the main event by invitation.

Join us to celebrate Alameda Health System's providers alongside Bay Area leaders, medical professionals, and innovators that help advance health equity in Alameda County. All proceeds from this event will go to patient care at Alameda Health System.
