OAKLAND, CA | October 22, 2025—In the Name of Love, a powerful celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s vision and legacy through the iconic music of Sly & The Family Stone. Living Jazz presents this showcase as Oakland's largest civic and cultural event, returning to the historic Paramount Theatre for its 22nd anniversary on Saturday, January 17, 2026.

Originating from the Bay Area, Sly & The Family Stone broke barriers as one of the first integrated bands to achieve international success. Today, their message rings truer than ever—reminding us of the power of unity and the importance of everyday people coming together across lines of difference.

In the Name of Love carries that legacy forward, delivering a vibrant celebration of community and culture. The event highlights the strength and creativity of Black and Brown artists, bringing together some of the Bay Area's most acclaimed talent for an inclusive evening that uplifts and inspires.

Music Director Kev Choice leads a Bay Area rooted lineup featuring powerhouse performances by Adrian Marcel, Ashling "Biscuit" Cole, August Lee Stevens (Oakland Rising), B Deveaux, Martin Luther McCoy, Silk E, Sundra Manning, TURFinc featuring Johnny5 & Intricate, and the Awesöme Orchestra Collective conducted by founding artistic director David Möschler. The evening also features original Sly & The Family Stone bassist Rustee Allen, with house band Black London, led by Kev Choice, saxophonist Howard Wiley, and keyboardist Mike Blankenship. Adding to the magic, the stage will also shine with the next generation from Oaktown Jazz Workshops and the 150 member Living Jazz RootED Choir led by Bryan Dyer. Original Arrangements by Brian Adam McCune, Kev Choice, Mike Blankenship, and Vincent Rillera. Hosted by RyanNicole, this is an evening you won't want to miss!

Living Jazz will also be presenting the 2026 Oakland Citizen Humanitarian Award to Oakland legend, the late William "Bill" Patterson. This award carries a special legacy, having been presented by Mayor Barbara Lee in past years. For those who may not know, Bill Patterson is one of Oakland's greatest mentors. He played a pivotal role in shaping the lives of sports legends like Frank Robinson, Curt Flood, Bill Russell, Joe Morgan, Vada Pinson, Willie Stargell, and many more. His leadership also strengthened organizations such as East Bay Municipal Utility District, Oakland Zoo, Peralta Colleges Foundation, Oakland Parks & Recreation, and so much more. Bill instilled confidence and integrity in those he mentored, and the ripple effects have transformed the world of sports and leadership.

Last year's event was a soul-nourishing tribute to Oakland's artistic community, and this year promises to be even more unforgettable. We got to live together and witness the rising talent of the Bay Area as we come together in celebration of everyday people.
